

The Fried Frank Fellowship Program accepts applications from graduating law students and recent law school graduates, including judicial clerks.

To be considered, you must submit:

- A résumé
- Two letters of recommendation (one each from a law school faculty member and an employer)
- A legal writing sample
- A 500-word essay
- A law school transcript

The deadline for receipt of Fellowship Program application materials is November 1, 2009.

LDF and MALDEF Fellowship Applicant Essays

Select one or two civil rights issues of interest to you. Explain briefly why these issues are important to you and how you feel the Fellowship can serve as a vehicle to effect change in those areas, including how your experiences and/or skills may contribute to such change.

MALDEF Regional Office Placement

MALDEF litigates in regional offices around the nation in Los Angeles, Chicago, San Antonio and Atlanta. Based upon your interest and background and the litigation needs of MALDEF, we will work with applicants to determine a mutually agreeable geographic placement. However, all Fellows have the option to work in MALDEF's Los Angeles office, the site of its national headquarters. We will determine a particular placement at the time of your selection for the Fellowship.
